Dear Parents,

Today is Spirit Wear Day as well as Chick Fil A Night! I hope everyone has dinner at Chick Fil-A tonight! Be sure to tell your cashier that you are with Holy Childhood School and the school will receive a portion of the sales.

The Dinner Auction last Saturday evening was FABULOUS!! Thank you to everyone who worked so hard to make the evening enjoyable and successful! Thank you to all who purchased items, donated to the Fund A Need, purchased raffle tickets or sweets from the Sweet Tooth Booth.

The support for the “Box of Joy” project is great! Thank you to each family who is participating. We still have approximately 25 boxes to be filled if any family would like to purchase items and fill a Box of Joy. All boxes need to be returned by next Friday, October 28. Please remember to include your check payable to Cross Catholic Outreach. We do have a new supply of the enclosure envelopes if you need one. Thank you for your generosity and gifts!

The Magazine Drive Awards Assembly was this past Tuesday. Thanks to Mrs. Reinneck for organizing this fundraiser and congratulations to all who sold magazines! Any student who sold at least one magazine will be able to dress out of uniform next Wednesday, October 26!

Next week is Red Ribbon Week. Throughout the week, we will have activities for students to participate in to remind them to say no to drugs. Please look for the flier in today’s News & Notes Folder for each day’s activity. If your child sold a magazine subscription, he/she may dress out of uniform in addition to wearing a hat to school.

REMINDER – there is no bus service next Thursday, October 27 or Friday, October 28. Friday will be an early dismissal – 11:30.

Have a great weekend!
