NOTES

- Everyone is getting the hang of our daily routine and I am so proud of them. They are so good at helping each other clean up. I am truly blessed. They are so sweet!
- Monday, we met Mr. Norrenberns who will be our P.E. teacher Monday and Wednesdays. He is my big brother and I know your kids will have fun with him throughout the year.
- We review our rules daily. Please talk about the importance of our rules with your child. Our classroom rules are: helping hands, looking eyes, listening ears, quiet voices, walking feet, and loving hearts.

LITERACY - We will continue to do "Morning Meeting" sharing time and will be working on our fine motor skills. We drew our families and self portraits which I will share at conferences.

MATH - We will continue to do Calendar Math where we count to the given day, count days of school, and graph weather. We will continue going over our number of the month. August is number "0", shape names and AB patterns.

SOCIAL/EMOTIONAL - We will continue to discuss our classroom rules.

RELIGION - We are learning songs like Good Morning Jesus, Good Morning God this is Your Day, Jesus I trust in You. We also discussed Mother Mary is the Queen of Heaven and Earth, August 22 is the Feast of the Queenship of Mother Mary. .
